

“What I look for in a referral lawyer is true professionalism... that is Jim Howie.”

– Paul Barrafato

PERSONAL INJURY, WSIB, CPP, CIVIL LITIGATION

The referral relationship between Jim Howie and Paul Barrafato goes back two decades.

“I first met Jim Howie through a lecture series I attended on personal injury law. I was immediately impressed with his depth of knowledge and experience base.

The main thing I look for in a referral relationship is true professionalism. In my opinion, and the opinion of the clients I have referred to him, Jim Howie has that in spades. It's been a great relationship all the way.”

Long term referral relationships, like the one we have with Paul Barrafato, are the best endorsement any personal injury firm can hope for.
