

DON'T GOLF? JOIN US FOR DINNER INSTEAD!

OUT OF THE ROUGH GOLF TOURNAMENT

IN SUPPORT OF ST. MICHAEL'S HOSPITAL HEAD INJURY CLINIC

Now in its 17th year, the Out of the Rough Golf Tournament and Dinner is an important and successful event in support of the St. Michael's Hospital Head Injury Clinic. To date, the tournament has raised more than $1.5 million in support of patient care and research in mild traumatic brain injury. Our goal is to advance the further integration of the right care to the right patient at the right time for every mild to moderate traumatic brain injured patient in Ontario.

Join us for a delicious farm-to-table dinner, exceptional networking opportunities, and entertainment — all in support of a great cause! This year's featured presenter is Terry Fallis, bestselling author and two-time winner of the Leacock Medal for Humour.

ABOUT TERRY FALLIS:

A two-time winner of the Stephen Leacock Medal for Humour, Terry Fallis is the author of six national bestselling novels. The Best Laid Plans was the winner of the Leacock Medal for Humour in 2008, and CBC's Canada Reads in 2011. It was adapted as a six-part television mini-series, as well as a stage musical. The High Road was a Leacock Medal finalist in 2011. Up and Down was the winner of the 2013 Ontario Library Association Evergreen Award and was a finalist for the 2013 Leacock Medal. His fourth novel, No Relation, was released in May 2014, debuted on the Globe and Mail bestsellers list, and won the 2015 Leacock Medal. His fifth, Poles Apart, hit bookstores in October 2015, was a Globe and Mail bestseller, and was a finalist for the 2016 Leacock Medal. One Brother Shy was released in May 2017 and became an instant bestseller. His seventh novel, Albatross, is due in bookstores in August 2019.

ABOUT ALBATROSS:

Adam Coryell is your average high-school student — well, except for that obsession with collecting fountain pens — when his life changes forever. Based on a study by a quirky Swedish professor that claims that every human being, regardless of athletic inclination, has a body that is suited to excel in at least one sport, it turns out that Adam is good — very good, in fact — at golf. Even though he's never even picked up a golf club.

Almost instantly — and with his coach, hard-nosed Bobbie Davenport by his side — Adam and his new-found talent skyrocket to a prodigy-level stardom that includes tournament titles, sponsorship deals, throngs of fans following his every move, and fodder for tabloids. But here's the catch: Adam hates playing golf. And as the life he once knew slips away — including the love of his life, the dream of being a writer, and everyday normalcy — he can't help but wonder if all this success and fame is worth it... or if it's enough for him.

Heartwarming and funny, sweeping and entertaining, Terry Fallis' new book takes readers on a journey of mishaps and misadventure, but also self-discovery.
